CHAPTER 431

AN ACT FOR THE PROTECTION AND CONSERVATION OF MIGRATORY WILD FOWL IN CURRITUCK COUNTY.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

- Territory defined. SECTION 1. That no one shall hunt, shoot, kill or trap any wild duck, geese, brant or other wild fowl, or act as guide to anyone so engaged, from shore, marsh, blind, battery or other floating device on or adjacent to the waters of Currituck Sound or its tributaries in Currituck County unless he shall have obtained from the clerk of the Superior Court of Currituck County a hunter's license such as is hereinafter provided for.
